ARTICLES OF SETTLEMENT

Made this 14th day of November, 1931, at ~~two~~ ~~three~~ four o'clock in the morning

The undersigned, being unable to satisfy the sum owed at play — said sum being eleven dollars and forty cents — and having no coin nor credit remaining, and having been advised twice to stop, does convey the dwelling upon the hill, with all land and rights of entry thereto.

Title shall rest with the bearer of the deed. Not with his name, nor his heirs, nor his estate — with whosoever holds it. Presentation of the deed is presentation of title, and requires no witness and no court.

The deed being the one with the seal. I am taking it home with me.

The occupants may remain at the pleasure of the bearer, and shall not be put out for ~~snoring~~ any reason.

No term is set. This debt does not expire.

Neither does he.

Both parties affirm they are of sound mind.

Memoranda

Apr. 2. Sowed the last of the Sun's-mercy seed. Fourth sowing since the frost. Tray under the grate.

Apr. 6. Up. White.

Apr. 8. They lean to the grate. Nothing I can do about that.

Apr. 11. Dead by the sixth day, as before.

Apr. 18. Vixen's leg hot again under the splint. Smells of it.

Apr. 21. Worse. A poultice of the flower would draw it and close it. Want a flower, not a seedling.
