TRANSYLTOWN · COUNTY OF COLUMBIA · STATE OF NEW YORK

ARTICLES OF SETTLEMENT

Made this 14th day of November, 1931, at ~~two~~ ~~three~~ four o'clock in the morning

The undersigned, being unable to satisfy the sum owed at play — said sum being eleven dollars and forty cents — and having no coin nor credit remaining, and having been advised twice to stop, does convey the dwelling upon the hill, with all land and rights of entry thereto.

Title shall rest with the bearer of the deed. Not with his name, nor his heirs, nor his estate — with whosoever holds it. Presentation of the deed is presentation of title, and requires no witness and no court.

The deed being the one with the seal. I am taking it home with me.

The occupants may remain at the pleasure of the bearer, and shall not be put out for ~~snoring~~ any reason.

No term is set. This debt does not expire.

Neither does he.

Both parties affirm they are of sound mind.

FOR THE HOUSE

V. Soprano

THE UNDERSIGNED

C. Dood

— pressed hard enough to tear the paper

WITNESSED & NOTARIZED BY

Count Dracula, Esq.

— who is not a notary

He was fine. He was completely fine. I asked him twice.

